

Perpetual e-Motion

Last years Chattaboogie was such a wonderful time, we've decided to bring Perpetual e-Motion back for another great weekend! Unheard of I know! Ed Howe and John Cote have developed quite a unique style of playing traditional tunes, and a fan base to go with it! If you haven't had the privilege of dancing to the hottest band around, or simply can't wait to dance to them again, join us for Chattaboogie 2012.

Double Apex

Double Apex fuses the worlds of electronic and acoustic dance music, pairing high energy fiddle tunes and thumping house beats. Using fiddle, piano, synths, and samples, This duo will take you on an unforgettable live-tronic dance journey. You've never seen techno contra like this before. They have worked with the likes of George Marshal and Nils Fredland throughout New England and played the Burning Man contra this year. Double Apex is Brendan Carey-Block (from Matching Orange) on fiddle, sequencing and samples and Julie Vallimont (from Nor'easter) on piano, synths, sequencing and samples .

Christie Burns

Christie Burns spent her senior year of college abroad in Ireland, founded and directed the Cork Dulcimer Festival and there began to network with musicians from all over the world. She has taken her music to Sweden, England, Scotland, Belgium, Hungary, Switzerland, and Germany, as well as festivals all over the United States and has collected music in every place she's been. Christie is a co-founding director of Chattanooga's Mountain Music Folk School and holds a B.A. in Ethnomusicology from UCLA.

Seth Tepfer

Seth Tepfer is "Atlanta's Dance Magician," calling dances like you've never seen before. Known for his infectious energy, his short walk-thru's, and his 'hash-contras,' Seth's warm enthusiasm is contagious, and gets everyone moving, smiling, and having a great time. Whether squares, contras, or other folk dances, you can be certain that all involved will amble away happy and eager to dance more!

Vicki Herndon

Whether it's calling from the stage or dancing on the floor, Vicki Herndon is one southern girl that loves contra. . . and it shows! With a collection of dances from "old favorites" to "new surprises", your feet are sure to be happy in no time. Vicki has been calling for over 10 years through out the southeast. So grab a partner and get ready for fun : laughter and smiles are a guarantee, you'll see!
